Choral May

Valentine's Day Dinner concert by Choral May. Special thanks to Ruriko sensei and Sango-san to make it happen.

Emiko-san came up with a wonderful idea. She will mount the calligraphy work on washi paper as a birthday gift. Tomoyo put this into a nice frame! It is one of a kind!

Look at this vase. Sumiko is so clever to reuse a container of kamameshi (釜めし)! It is cute and very nice with the flowers.

Ito Yosakoi

Their name "Ito" (糸 - Tapestry) emphasizes the relationships woven together between members of a community. The residents enjoyed dancing with them!!

Eating Eho-maki (恵方巻) while facing southwest on Setsubun (節分) and making their wishes.

Freesia bulbs are growing each day. Can't wait to see once they have blossomed!
